LETTER WRITING

Children certainly need to learn how to write both formal and informal letters. This is an important social and business skill that they will need in the future. Letter writing can also provide real audiences and help children to develop and understand voice. In many primary classrooms teachers write a "daily letter" to their students on large chart paper. This is excellent modeling with a real purpose. Search for opportunities to write letters for real purposes and watch your young writer's blossom.
